SUWANEE, Ga. (April 16) -- Hendrix College first year RHP/1B Liz Vaughan has been named the Division III Softball Midwest Regional Player-of-the-Week and was featured on this week's edition of 'Inside SCAC Softball Volume 6.' CLICK HERE to listen to the podcast.

Vaughan (Garland, Texas/Greenhill H.S.) is the first Hendrix player in program history to be named a Regional POTW. This was her second honor after receiving the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference POTW award for games played from Monday, April 6 through Sunday, April 12. She batted 8-for-10 with a 1.200 slugging percentage, .833 on-base percentage and tossed a pair of complete-game victories to help lift the Warriors to a 3-1 record during the stretch.

SCAC Assistant Sports Information Director, Russell Kramer, spoke with Vaughan about her standout freshman year, her great relationship with the coaching staff and the team's outlook on its upcoming series against Birmingham-Southern and the conference tournament.

Kramer also had a chance to catch up with Warriors' head coach Amy Weaver in last week's edition of Inside the SCAC. Weaver spoke about the youth of the Hendrix squad, their offensive power and what the Warriors need to focus on as the regular season wraps up. Click Here to listen to last week's podcast.

The conference office posts a new podcast on the SCAC Blog, as part of a new SCAC Interactive page. Be sure to visit the blog for interviews with players and coaches from around the league. Click Here to visit the SCAC Blog.
